

LEESE - FITCH

CALIFORNIA
SAUVIGNON BLANC

2014

TASTING NOTES

Zesty and refreshing, this Sauvignon Blanc has enticing aromas of Mexican guava and pineapple that carry over to the palate. Just off dry, the body of this wine is juicy with a crisp balanced acidity.

WINEMAKER NOTES

Another excellent vintage for California, 2014 saw a mild winter and spring which led to an early bud break. A long and dry growing season allowed for the grapes to ripen evenly with optimal amounts of flavors. Predominantly sourced from Lodi and Clarksburg, this Sauvignon Blanc was destemmed, crushed, and pressed shortly after harvest. From there, the wine was then fermented and aged in stainless steel, providing a light a crisp body.

FOOD PAIRINGS

A suitable pairing for this Sauvignon Blanc would be a light asparagus salad, an assortment of aged cheeses, or seared scallops.
