Inspired by the Aztec Warriors, the award-winning Pasote Añejo Tequila is distilled with pure rainwater, natural spring water and home-grown agave by a master tequilero. The bottle itself will certainly stand out on a tequila-lover's bar cart, featuring a hand-screened graphic of an Aztec eagle. With aromas of vanilla and coconut and tasting notes that include roasted oranges, spicy cinnamon and toasty, sweet flavors, it's ideally paired with desserts like flan or bread pudding and perfect as a gift for your bff with a sweet tooth. Pasote tequila can be purchased in stores nationally.
