Gehricke Zinfandel 2016 - While Chardonnay and Pinot Noir are the stars from the Russian River Valley, other varieties such as Zinfandel, Syrah and Sauvignon Blanc also perform well in this appellation. Bright ruby red; aromas of red raspberry, bramble and sage. Medium-full with excellent concentration. Rich, ripe mid-palate, ample wood notes, rich, young tannins and a powerful finish (15.1%) with distinct spicy notes of clove, mace and a hint of pepper. Give time to settle down – best in 5-7 years. Excellent
