Gehricke Los Carneros Pinot Noir 2015, California

If you love a good pinot noir, here is one that just came in last week. Fourth-generation proprietor August Sebastiani is the talented vintner behind this lush gem. The grapes are sourced from the Los Carneros appellation in California, which is known for growing great pinot noir grapes.

The wine sees 20 months in French oak, which contributes to the complexity, depth and finish. Heady aromatics of cherries, rhubarb and Asian spices escape the glass. Flavors of raspberry, plums and just a hint of vanilla coat the palate. The wine has a nice silky texture and long lasting finish.

Pair with: stuffed Portobello, grilled pork tenderloin, grilled steelhead trout or salmon or with a nice chunk of Camembert cheese.
