

WINSTON-SALEM JOURNAL

December 10, 2022

SIPS & PICKS: RECENTLY REVIEWED WINES

By: Michael Hastings

VPM: 156,946

Link to Full Article

--Gericke 2019 Russian River Valley Chardonnay, Healdsburg, Ca., $29. Apple and butterscotch aromas. Apple with a bit of lemon on the palate, along with light caramel and toasty oak flavors through a lingering finish. A balanced and elegant oaked chard. Very good.

--Guinigi 2015 Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G., Italy, $58. Cherries, earth and spice aromas and flavors. Good acidity and structure on the smooth palate, with a lingering finish. Good.

3 BADGE BEVERAGE CORPORATION

--Guinigi Prosecco Rose D.O.C. Treviso, Italy, $17. A bit peachy and floral. Fruity but fairly dry on the palate. Persistent bubbles, good acidity. Good.

--Guinigi Prosecco D.O.C. Treviso, Italy, $17. Peach aromas. Fruity with apple and peach and a bit sweet on the palate. Persistent bubbles. OK.

GEHRICKE & GUINIGI WINES