White wines aren't always associated with Father's Day, but these full-bodied white wines offer tastes that appeal to both white and red wine drinkers. These wines are different from the typical Sauv Blanc and Chardonnays. Here's a roundup of some more unusual wines to gift your father:

Cedar + Salmon 2024 Pinot Gris

This Willamette Valley white wine offers delicate aromas of crushed gravel, white flowers and a burst of lime zest over fresh melon. Crisp and refreshing, it pairs beautifully with seafood, goat cheese and herbaceous and citrus-forward dishes.
