EDITORS' CHOICE
wine enthusiast

This is a very successful wine at this price. Delicate aromas of daffodil, lychee and wet stone lead into a focused palate that is crisp with apple and Asian pear. - Matt Kettmann

WINEMAKER NOTES

The 2019 growing season in Monterey was long and cool with temperatures heating up around early October. Due to the humidity during harvest, timing was much tighter than in prior years but the resulting fruit showed high acidity and intense flavors.

FOOD PAIRINGS

This wine pairs perfectly with an oven baked halibut served with a light salad of corn, fresh tomatoes and basil. A creamy summer risotto with vegetables would also lend well to this Monterey chardonnay. Enjoy chilled with friends on a warm summer night.
